Professional employer organizations (PEO), common pay masters, or other agents providing payroll services to clients, subsidiaries, or other companies may use Schedule R-17 to allocate the total information reported on Form 17 to each client, subsidiary, or other company. Schedule R-17 will reconcile the aggregate information reported on Form 17 to each client, subsidiary or other company. Use Section B below to report workplace wages, workplace tax withheld and residence tax withheld for each RITA Municipality. The totals must equal Form 17, Page 2, Section 6.

Company EIN of Professional Employer Organization Company Name of Professional Employer Organization Tax Year

Company Address of Professional Employer Organization Submitter Name Contact Phone Number

City State Zip Submitter Signature: I have examined this report and to the best of my knowledge it is correct.

← If you are reporting your own company with your client/subsidiary/company Form 17 totals, then list your company first.

Separate lines are necessary for each RITA Municipality. DO NOT list Multiple or RITA.

*Working from home (WFH) indicator. For each entry, check the WFH indicator box if employees worked from home (or from a qualified remote work location) in the municipality listed. These wages are reported as part of workplace wages.
